CHAP. I.

Here is no Man that ever understood the Interest of Mankind, of Families, Cities, Kingdoms, Churches, and of Jesus Christ, the King and Saviour, but he must needs know that the right Instruction, Education, and Sanctification of Touth, is of unspeakable Consequence to them all; and therefore I am urged in my Mind, by the greatness of the Case, to add yet this Epistle to the younger Sort ; which shall contain, I. The great Importance of the Cafe of Youth. If. How it stands with them in Matter of Fact. III. What are the Causes of their Sin and dangerous Degeneracy. IV. How great a Bleffing Wife and Godly Youth are to themselves and others. V. How great a Plague and Calamity the Ungodly are. VI. What great Reason Ungodly Senfual Youth have presently to repent and turn to God. VII. Directions to them how to do it. VIII. And fome Directions to Parents about their Education. And all must be with the Brevity of an Epistle.

CHAP. II.

To begin betimes to live to God, is of unspeakable Importance to your selves.

POR, 1. You were betimes folemnly dedicated to God, as your God, your Father, your Saviour, and your Sanctifier, by your Baptismal Vow; and as that that was a great Mercy, it obliged you to great Duty: You were capable in Infancy of that Holy Dedication and Relation; and your Parents were presently obliged as to dedicate you to God, so to educate you for God: And as soon as you are capable of Performance, the Vow is upon your selves to do it. If your Childhood is not presently obliged to Holiness, according to your natural Capacity, no doubt your Vow and Baptism should have been also delay'd.

2. All your Time and Life is given you by God for one End and Use, and all is little enough; and will you alienate the very beginning, and be Rebell so foon?

Life for a Day, or an Hour. Thousands go out of the World in Youth. Alas, the Flesh of Young Men is corruptible, liable to Hundreds of Diseases, as well as the Old. How quickly may a Vein break, and Cold seize on your Head and Lungs, and turn to an uncurable Consumption? How quickly may a Fever, a Pleurisy, an Imposthume, or one of a thousand Accidents, turn your Bodies to Corruption? And O that I knew how to make you fensible how dreadful a Thing it is to die in an unholy State, and in the Guilt of any unpardoned Sin! An unfanctified Soul, that hath lived here but to the Flesh and the World, will be but Fewel for the Fire of Hell, and the wrathful Justice of the most Holy God. And though in the Course of undisturb'd Nature, Young Men may live longer than the Old, yet Nature hath fo many Difturbances and Crosses, that our Lives are still like a Candle in a broken Lanthorn, which a blaft of Wind may foon blow out. To tell you that you are not certain in an unfanctified State, to be one Day or Hour more out of Hell, I expect will not move you so much as the Weight of the Cafe deserveth, because merc Possibility of the greatest Hurt doth not affect Men when they think there is no Probability of it. You have long been well, and long you hope to be fo: But did you think how many hundred Veins, Arteries. Nerves, must be kept constantly in Order, and all the Blood and Humours in due Temper; and how the stopping of one Vein, or Distemper of the Blood, may quickly end you; it would rather teach you to admire the merciful Providence

dence of God that fuch a Body should be kept alive one Year.

4. But were you fure to live to Maturity of Age, alas, how quickly will it come? What haste makes Time? How fast do Days and Years roll on? Had I done no Service for God, that I could now look back upon, I should feem as if I had not lived. A Thousand Years, and One Hour, are all one (that is, nothing) when they are past. And every Year, Day and Hour of your Lives hath its proper Work: And how will you answer for it? Every Day offereth you more and more Mercies, and will you despise and lose them? If you were Heirs to Land, or had an Annuity which amounted but to an Hundred Pounds a Year, and you were every day to receive a proportionable part of it, or lose it; would you lose it through Neglect, and fay, I will begin to receive it when I am old? Poor Labourers will work hard all the Day, that at Night they may have their Wages: And will you contemptuously lose your every Day's Mercies, your Safety, your Communion with God, your daily Bleffings and his Grace, which you should daily beg, and may daily recoive?

5. Either you will repent and live to God, or not; if not, you are undone for ever. Oh how much less miserable is a Dog, or a Toad, than fuch a Sinner! But if God will shew you so great Mercy, Oh how will it grieve you to think of the precious Time of Youth which you madly cast away in Sin! Then you will think, O what Knowledge, what Holiness might I then have got! What a comfortable Life might I have lived! O what Days and Years of Mercy did I cast away for nothing! Yea, when God hath given you the Pardon of your Sin, the Tafte of his Love, and the Hopes of Heaven, it will wound your Hearts to think that you should so long, so unthankfully, so heinously offend so Good a God, and neglect fo Merciful a Saviour, and trample upon Infinite Divine Love, for the Love of fo base and fleshly a Pleasure. That ever you should be so bad, as to find more Pleasure in finning, than in living unto God.

6. And be it known to you, if God in Mercy convert and save you, yet the bitter Fruit of your youthful Folly may follow you in this World to the Grave. If you waste your Estate in Youth, you may be poor at Age: If by Drinking, Gluttony, Idleness, or filthy Lust, you contract any uncurable Diseases in Youth, Repentance may not cure them till Death. All this might easily have been prevented, if you had but had foreseeing Wisdom.

7. And if ever you think to be Men of any great Wisdom and Usefulness in the World, to your selves or others, your Preparations must be made in Youth. Great Wisdom is not got in a little Time.

8. And O what a dreadful Danger is it lest your youthful Sin become remediless, and Custom harden you, and Deceivers blind you, and God forfake you, for your wilful Relistance of his Grace! God may convert old hardened Sinners: But how ordinarily do we find that Age doth but answer the Preparations of Youth, and the Vessel ever after savoureth of the Liquor which first throughly tainted it: And Men are but fuch as they learned to be and do at first. If you will be perfidious Breakers of your Baptismal Vows, it's just with God to leave you. to your selves, to a deluded Understanding, to think Evil Good, and Good Evil, AS to:

to a feared Conscience, and a hardened Heart, and as past feeling, to work Uncleannels with Greedinels, Epb. 3. 18. and to fight against Grace and your own Salvation, till Death and Hell convince you of your Madness. O sport not with the Justice of a Sin-hating God! Play not with Sin, and with the unquenchable Fire! Forfaking God is the Way to be forfaken of him. And what is a forfaken Soul but a miserable Slave of Satan?

9. Yea, did you but know of what moment it is to prevent all the heinous Sins that else you will commit, you would make hafte to repent, though you were fure to be forgiven. Forgivenels maketh not Sin to be no Sin, or to be no Evil, no Shame, no Grief, to the Soul that hath committed it. You will cry out, O that I had never known it! To look back on fuch an ill-spent Life, will be no pleasant Thought. Repentance, though a healing Work, is bitter: Make not Work for it, if you love your Peace.

10. And is it a small thing to you, that you are all this while doing hurt to others? And drawing them to Sin, and plunging them into that dangerous Guilt, which which can no way be pardoned but by the Blood of Christ upon true Conversion? And when they have joined with you in Lust and slessly Pleasure, it is not in your power to turn them, that they may join with you in sound Repentance; and if not, they must lie in Hell for ever: And can you make a Sport of your own and other Mens Damnation? But this leadeth me to the Second Point. I have shewed you of what wast Concernment it is to your selves to begin betimes a holy Life; I will next shew you of what Concernment it is to others.

id deniside L. H. A. P. III.

Of what Publick Concernment the Quality of Youth is.

The Welfare of the World is of far greater Worth than of any fingle Person; and he hath put off Humanity, who doth not more earnestly defire it. If this World confisted but of one Generation, then to make that Generation neration Wise and Good would be enough to make it a happy World: But it is not so. In Heaven, and in the future glori-ous Kingdom, there is neither Marrying, nor giving in Marriage, but they are as the Angels, in a fixed everlasting State; and one continued Generation maketh up the New Jerusalem: Being once holy and happy, they are so for ever; but here it is not so. One Generation cometh, and another goeth: If the Father be as Wife as Solomon, the Son may be as Foolish as Reboboam : O what a great Work it is to make a Man truly Wife and Good! How many Years Study doth it usually require? What Wisdom and Diligence in Teachers? What Teachableness and Diligence in Learners; and especially the Grace of God! And when all is done, the Man quickly dieth, and obtaineth his Ends in another World: But his Children are born as ignorant, and perhaps as bad as he was born: He can neither leave them his Knowledge, nor his Grace. They must have all the same Teaching, and Labour, and Bleffing, as he had, to bring them to the fame Attainments : The Mercy and Covenant of God taketh them into his Church, where they have great Advantages and Helps, and promifeth miseth them more Mercy for their Relation to a Faithful Parent, if he or they do make no Forfeiture of it; but as their Nature is the same with others, so their actual Wisdom must come by God's Blessing on the use of the same Means, which are necessary to the Children of the worst Men. A Christian's Child is born with no more Knowledge than a Heathen's, and must have as much Labour and Study to make him Wife.

S. 2. It is certain then that the Welfare of this World lieth on a good Succession of the several Generations: And that all the Endeavours of one Generation, with God's greatest Blesling on them. will not serve for the Ages following; all must begin anew, and be done over again, or all will be as undone to the next Age. And it is not the least Blef-fing on the Faithful, that their Faith and Godliness disposeth them to have a Care of Posterity, and to devote their Children wholly to God, as well as themfelves, and to educate them in his Fear. If Nature had not taught Birds and Beafts to feed their Young, as well as to generate them, their Kind would be foon extinct. O what a Bleffed World were it, if the Bleffings of Men famous for Wif-dom and Godliness were entailed on all that should spring from them, and if this were the common Cafe!

6. 3. But the Doleful Miseries of the World have come from the degenerating of good Mens Posterity. Adam hath his Cain, and Noab his Cham, and David his Absalom; Solomon, Hezekiah, Josiah, left not their like behind them. The prefent State of the Eastern Churches is a dreadful Instance. What Places on Earth were more honourable for Faith and Piety than Alexandria, Antioch, Jeru-falem, Constantinople, Epbesus, Philadel-phia, and the rest of these Great and Noble Countries; and those also strengthened with the powerfullest Christian Empire that ever was on Earth? And now they are Places of Barbarism, Tyranny, and foolish Mahometanism, where the Name of Christ is made a Scorn, and the few Christians that keep up that Sacred Profession, by Tyranny kept in fo great Ignorance, that, alas, the Vices of most of them dishonour their Profession as much as their Enemies Persecutions do.

And alas, were it not for the Name of a Pompous Christian Church, how plain an Instance would Rome be of the fame

ar

fame Degeneracy? And some Countries that received the Blessing of Reformation have revolted into the Darkness of Popery. What a Change was in England by Queen Mary's Reign? And how many particular Cities and Towns are grown Ignorant, which in former Times were Famous for Religion?

S. 4. And on the other side, when Piety hath successively as a River kept its Course, what a Blessing hath it proved? (But how rare is that!) And when Children have proved better than their Parents, it hath been the beginning of Welfare to the Places where they lived. How marvellously did the Reformation prevail in Germany in Lather's time, when God brought out of Popish Monasteries many Excellent Instruments of his Service? And Princes became Wise and Pious, whose Parents had been Blind or Impious? Godlines or Wickedness, Welfare or Calamity, follow the Changes and Quality of Posterity.

And Men live fo short a Time, that the Work of Educating Youth aright is one half the great Business of Man's Life.

.awo res to fis

5. 5. Among the Antient Sages of the World, the Greeks and Romans, and much more among the Ifraelites, the Care of Posterity, and Publick Welfare, was the great Thing which differenced the Virtuous and Laudable, from those of a Base, Selfish, Sensual Disposition. He was the Bravest Citizen of Rome that did most love, and best serve his Country: And he was the Saint among the Jews who most loved Sion, and the Security and Succession of its holy and peaceable Posterity. And the Christian Faith, and Hope, and Interest, doth lead us herein to a much higher Pitch, and to a greater Zeal for Publick Good, in following him that whipt out Profaners from the Temple; even a Zeal of God's House, which eateth us up: It teacheth us by the Cross most effectually to deny our felves, and to think nothing too dear to part with to edify the Church of God, nor any Labour or Suffering too great for common Good. It teacheth us to pray for the Hallowing of God's Name, the Coming of be Kingdom, and the Doing of bis Will on Earth, as it is Done in Heaven, before our Daily Bread, and any other Personal Interest of our own. Therefore the Families lies of Christians should be as so many Schools, or Churches, to train up a Succession of Persons meet for the great Communicative Works which God calleth all Believers to in their several Measures: It is eminently Teachers, but it is also all others in their several Ranks, who must be the Salt of the Earth, and the Lights of the World. And indeed the Spirit of Holiness is so eminently the Spirit of Love to God and Man, that it inclineth every Sanctified Person to a Communicative Zeal, to make others Wise, and Good, and Happy.

§. 6. And God in great Mercy hath planted yet more deeply and fixedly the Natural Love of Parents to their Children, that it might be in them a Spring of all this Duty; fo that though fleshly Vice may make Men mistake their Childrens Good, as most ungodly Men do their own, and think that it consisteth in that which it doth not, yet still the general Desire of their Childrens Welfare, as well as of their own, is deeply rooted, and will work for their Welfare as soon as they well know wherein it doth consist. And God hath not given them this Love only for the Good of the individual Children, but much more for the Commonwealth and Church; that as exercised Soldiers make one Army, so many well Educated Children may make up one Peaceable and Holy Society.

$. 7. And accordingly it is much to be observed, that God hath not given Children a Natural Love and Submissiveness to Parents only for the personal Benefit of their Provision and other Helps; but especially that hereby they may be teachable and obedient to those Instructions of their Parents, by which they may become Bleffings in their Generations, and may conjunctly make up Wise and Holy Societies, Families, Churches, and Commonwealths. For these Ends it is that God hath bound you, as to reverence your Masters, Tutors and Pastors, so especially both to reverence and love your Parents, that you may be the more capable of their necessary Instruction and Advice.

By all this it is most evident that the great Means of the Welfare of the World must be the Faithful and Holy Endeavours of Parents, and the Willing Teachableness and Obedience of Children, that they may escape the Snares of Folly and fleshly Lusts, and may betimes get that Wisdom and Love of Goodness, which may make them sit to be Blessings to the Places where they live.

CHAP. IV.

How the Case standeth with our Youth in Matter of Fact.

6. 1. T Hrough the great Mercy of God many Families are Sacred Nurferies for Church and Kingdom; and many Parents have great Comfort in the Grace of God appearing in their Children. From their early Childhood many are of Humble Obedient Dispositions, and have a Love to Knowledge, and a Love to the Word of God, and to those that are Good and Virtuous Persons. They have inward Convictions of the Evil of Sin, and a Fear of Sinning, and a great diflike of wicked Persons, and a great Love and reverend Obedience to their Parents; and when they grow up, they diligently learn in Private, and in Publick: Publick: They increase in their Love to the Scriptures, and good Books, and to godly Teachers, and godly Company; and God saveth them from Temptations, and worldly Deceits, and fleshly Lusts; and they live to God, and are Blessings to the Land, the Joy of their Friends, and exemplary and useful to those whom they converse with.

6. 2. But all, even Religious Parents, have not the like Bleffing in their Children. 1. Some of them, though Religious otherwise, are lamentably careless of the Duty which they promised to perform (at Baptism) in the Education of their Children, and do but superficially and formally instruct them, and are too faulty as to the Example which they should give them; and feem to think that God must bless them, because they are theirs, and because they are baptized, while they neglect their promised Endeavours. 2. And some Children, when they grow up, and are bound to relift Temptations, and to use God's appointed Means for their own Good, do wilfully refist God's Grace, and run into Temptations, and neglect, and wretchedly betray themselves, and forfeit the Mercies which they needed. greet y inegitib your 9. 3.

6.3. In all my Observation, God hath most blessed the Children of those Parents who have educated them as followeth: 1. Those that have been particularly fensible what they promised for them in the Baptismal Vow, and made Conscience of performing it. 2. Those that have had more Care of their Souls than of their outward Wealth. 3. Those that have been most careful to teach them the Pravity of corrupted Nature by Original Sin, and to humble them, and teach them the Need of a Saviour, and his renewing as well as pardoning Grace, and to tell them the Work of the Spirit of Sanctification, and teach them above all to look to the inward State of their Souls. 4. Those that have most seriously minded them of Death, Judgment, and the Life to come. 5. Those that have always spoken of God with the greatest Reverence, Affection and Delight. 6. Those that have most wisely laboured to make all the Knowledge and Practice of Religion pleasant unto them, by the suitableness of Doctrines and Duties to their Capacity. 7. Those that have most difgraced Sin to them, especially base and fleshly Pleasures. 8. Those that have kept them from the Baits of Sen-

Senfuality, not gratifying their Appetites in Meats and Drink, to bring them to an unruly Habit; but used them to a Habit of Temperance, and Neglect of Appetite. 9. Those that have most difgraced Worldliness and Pride to them. and used them to low Things in Apparel and Possession, and told them how the Proud are hateful to God, and fet before them the Example of a Crucified Christ, and opened to them the Doctrine of Mortification and Self-denial, and the great Necessity of true Humility. 10. Those that have been most watchful to know their Childrens particular Inclinations and Temptations, and apply anfwerable Remedies, and not carelesty leave them to themselves. 11. Those that have been most careful to keep them from ill Company; especially, (1.) Of wicked Youths, of their own Growth and Neighbourhood. (2.) And of tempting Women. 12. Those that have most wisely used them to the meetest Publick Teachers, and helped them to remember and understand what they hear, especially the Fundamental Truths in the Catechism. 13. Those that have most wifely engaged them into the Familiarity and frequent Converse of some Suitable. Godly, Godly, Exemplary Companions, 14. Those that have most conscionably spent the Lord's Days in Publick, and in their Families. 15. Those that have done all this, as with reverend Gravity, fo especially with tender endearing Love to their Children, convincing them that it is all done for their own Good; and that do not by imprudent Weaknesses, Ignorance, Passions, or Scandal, frustrate their own Endeavours, 16. Those that use not their Children as mere Patients, only to hear what their Parents fay, but ingage them to constant Endeavours of their own, for their own Good; especially in the Reading of Scripture, and the most fuitable Books, and meditating on them, and daily personal Prayer to God. 17. Laftly, Those that pray most heartily and believingly for God's Grace, and his Bleffing on their Endeavours: Such Mens Children are usually bleffed.

6. 4. But it is no wonder, where such Means are neglected, much more when Parents are ungodly, sleshly, worldly Persons, and perhaps Enemies to a holy Life, if the Children of such are ignorant, deluded, ungodly, and drown'd in sleshly Lusts; and, alas, it is the Multi-

tin 'e of such, and their sad Conditions, which is the Occasion of my writing this

Epiftle

5. 5. v. We fee, to our Grief, that many Children are of a stupid and unteachable Disposition, and almost unca-pable of Instruction, who yet can as quickly learn to talk of common Mat-ters as other Persons, and can as easily learn a Trade, or how to do any ordinary Bufiness. And though some meonsiderate Persons overlook the Casuality of the more immediate Parents Sins, in such Judgments on their Children, as if it were only Adam's Sin that hurt them, I have elsewhere proved that this is their great and dangerous Mistake. As David's Child died for the Father's Sin, the Children of Gluttons, Drunkards, Fornicators, oft contract such Bodily Distempers as greatly tend to stupify or further vitiate the Mind. And their Souls may have fad Additions to the common human Pravity.

2. Accordingly many Children have more violent Passions, and carnal Desires, than others, which run them into wicked Ways impetuously, as if they were almost Brutes, that had no Reason or Power to resist. And all Words and Corrections

are to them of little force, but they are as Blocks, that when you have faid and done what you can, go away as if they had not heard you.

3. And some have Cross and Crocked Natures, addicted to that which is naught; and the more, by how much the more you do contradict them: Froward and Obstinate, as if it were a desired Victory to them to overcome their Parents, and escape all that would make them Wife and Good: Dogged, Sour, Proud, Self-willed, and utterly Disobedient.

4. And too many have so great an Enmity and Averseness to all that is Holy, Spiritual and Heavenly, that they are weary to hear you talk of it; and you persuade them to learn to Read, to Pray, to Meditate, or Consider, as you persuade a sick Man to the Meat which he doth loath, or a Man to dwell with those that he hateth. They have no Appetite to such Things, no Pleasure in them; when you have said all of God, and Christ, and Glory, they believe in not, or they savour it not: They are Things above their Reach and Love, yea, Things against their Carnal Minds: You tire them worse than if you talk'd in a strange Language to them, such Enmity is in the Heart

There are some so enslaved to their Appetites, that their Reason hath no Power to rule them; but, like Brutes, they must needs have what the Belly and Throat defireth: And if they be the Children of the Rich, who have always full and pleasant Food, constant Flesh-pleasing, and true Gluttony, is taken for no Sin; and, like Swine, they do but live to eat, whereas they should but eat to live, and chearfully ferve God.

O what a pitiful Sight it is, to fee Men in the Flower of Youth and strength, when they should most rejoice God and Holiness, to be still thirsty fter a forbidden Pleasure, and hasting to it the Tavern or Alehouse, as a Bird to the house of the Fowler, and sweetly and reedily swallowing the poisonous Cup downich God forbiddeth! And Custom increaseth the Habits, and maketh them good for nothing, and like dead Men to all that Life is given them for, and only alive to prepare by Sin for endless Misery.

4. And usually Pride also takes its Part to make the Sin of Sodom in them compleat, Ezek. 16. 49. Pride, Fulness, and Ideness. Her House inclineth to Death, and ber Paths the Dead: None that go unto ber reurn again, neither take they hold of the Paths of Life. God, I doubt not, recovereth some, but the Case is dangerous: For though Age and Sickness ure Lust, usually before that the Concience is seared and debauched, and they eing past feeling, work Uncleanness with breediness, and forsaking God, are so for-aken by him, that all other Sin, Sensua-ity, and Enmity against a holy Life, revaileth against them, and the unclean Devil lets in many more.

6. And when all these Sins have en flaved sensual Youths, they must hav Money to maintain them; and if the have it not of their own, and be not th Sons of great Men, that will maintain them in the Service of the Flesh, the must steal to get it, which usually either by thievish borrowing when the cannot pay, or by robbing their Parent or Masters. If all the Masters in Londo knew what Thieves their Apprentice Vices are, for their own fakes they would take greater Care to watch over them and keep them from ill Company, Drus kenness and Plays, and would teach the to feek Pleasure in good Books, goo Company, and ferving God. Wifdo might have prevented this; but if the Thorn be got into the Conscience, it mu come out; and if the Poison be swallow ed, it must come up, what Gripes soeve the Vomit cost. There is no playing wit Hell-fire, nor jesting with the Justice the the most Holy God. One penitent R far view of fleshly Lust, and finful Pleafur Sha and Falshood, and Deceit, (though whole the fome if true and timely) will turn it into Gall and Wormwood; for the en of finful Mirth is Sorrow. 7. And too many there be that escape the gross and disgraceful part of the foresaid Sensuality and Unrighteousness; that yet do but chuse another Idol, and fet themselves wholly to rise in the World; and Riches, Preferment, and Honour, have almost all their Hearts and Care: That have no Delight in God and Holiness; nor doth the State of their Souls, or the Thought of their Everlasting State, affect them in any measure, according to its unspeakable Weight, nor fo much as these Shadows which they purfue. And when great Travellers, that have feen much of the World, and Old Men, and Dying Men, that have had all that it can do, are forced by Experience to call all Vanity and Vexation; unexperienced Youths, that are taken up with the Hopes of long Prosperity, and Provision for all that the Flesh desireth, have other Thoughts of it, and will not know that it is deceitful Vanity, till it hath deceived them of their chiefest Hope and Treafare. And when they have overtaken the Shadow which they pursue so greedily, they find it what others have done before them, the sweeter the more dangerous, and the parting will be the more bitter. Have told you the very lamentable Case of too many Young Men, especially Rich Mens Sons; I told you before of what Concern the State of Youth is to themselves and others. From thence (and alas from sad Experience) it's easy to gather the dolefulness of the Case of those that are drowned in slessly Lust and have sinned themselves into the Guil and Danger which I have described. But I will name some Parts of the Miser more particularly again.

Beafts, but Men? That have Reason given them to know, and love, and serve their Maker? And how sad is it to see a Man forget all this, and wilfully brutify himself? Were the Poet's Fictions true of Men turned into Trees, and Birds, and Beasts, how small were the Misery in comparison of yours? But for a reasonable Creature to subject himself to siefly Appetite, and wilfully degrade his Soul to the Rank of Brutes, is worse than if he had been made with the Body and the Unreasonableness of Brutes. Are you capable of no better Things than these?

S. 2. And what an odious Thing is it, when God hath chosen you out of the World to be Members of his visible Church, and given you the great Privilege of early Entrance into his Holy Covenant, and wash'd you in the Laver of visible Regeneration, and you are vowed to Christ, renouncing the Lusts of the Flesh, the World, and the Devil, that you might follow a Crucified Christ in the Way of Holiness to Everlasting Life, that you should so soon prove false, perfidious Traitors and Rebels against him that is your only Hope, and by Wickedness and Covenant-breaking make your Sin greater than that of Insidels, Turks and Heathens, that never were taken into the Church and Covenant of Christ, nor ever broke the Vows which you have broken, nor so cast away the Mercies which you had received.

6. 3. And what a doleful Case is it, that so much of your Minds, and Love, and Delight, which were all made for God, should be so missemployed, even in your Strength, when they should be most Vigorous, and all worfe than cast away on Filth and Folly? If your Souls be more worth than your Money, it is more Folly and Loss to mis-employ and abuse your Souls, your Reason, Love, and your Delight, than to abuse or cast away your Money. And what a Traitor or Murderer deserveth, that would give his Money to hire one to kill the King, or his Neighbour, I suppose you know; and what deserveth he that will use not only his Money, but himself, his Soul, his Thoughts, his Love, his Desire and Pleafure, against the most Glorious God that made him? fred Wretch, when his guilty Soul must be torn from his Body, and dragged in Terror to hear its Doom, and fo to the dreadful Execution? Sinners! Is this light Matter to you? Doth it not concern you? Are you not here mortal? Do you not know what Fleth is, and what a Grave is? And are not your aboled Souls Immortal? Are you fo mad as to forget this? Or fo bad as not to believe it? Will your not believing it make void the Justice and the Law of God, and fave you from that Hell, which only believing could have faved you from? Will not the Fire burn you, or the Sea drown you, if you can but run into it drunk or winking? Is Feeling, remediless Feeling, easter than Believing God in time? Alas! What Thould your Believing Friends do to fave you? They fee by Faith whither you are posting : They foresee your Terror and undone Case, and fain, if possible, they would prevent it; but they cannot do it without you If you will not confent and help your felves, it is not the holieft nor wisest Friends in the World that can help you. They would pull you out of the Fire in Fear, and out of the Mouth of the rosting Lion, but you will not be delivered! They call and CTY cry to you, O fear God, and turn to him while there is Hope; and you will not let Conscience and Reason be awakened: but those that go asseep to Hell will be past sleeping there for ever. O run not madly into the everlasting Fire.

S. 7. And indeed your fleepy Security and Prefumption doth make your Cafe more dangerous in it felf, and more pitiful to all that know it. O what a Sight is it to fee a Man go merry and laughing towards Damnation, and make a Jest of his own undoing? To fee him at the Brink of Hell, and will not believe it? Like a Mad Man boasting of his Wit, or a Drunken Man of his Sobriety.

But because I touch'd much of this in the Second Chapter, I will pass by the rest of your own Concerns, and a little further consider how sad the Case of such wretched Youths is also unto others.

The Joyful State and Blessing of good Children to themselves and others.

S. I. FROM what is said, Chap. 2, and 5. it's easy to gather how joy-ful a Case to themselves, and what a Blessing to Parents and others, it is, when Children betime are sober, wise, and godly, and obedient. The difference doth most appear at Age, and when they come to bring forth to themselves and others the Fruits of their Dispositions; and the End and Life to come will shew the greatest Difference: But yet even here, and that betime, the difference is very great, for a State is it to be quickly delivered from the Danger of Damnation, and God's Displeasure, that they need not lie down and rise in Fear, lest they be in Hell whenever Death removeth 'em from the Body? Can one too soon be out of so dreadful a State? Can one that is in a House on fire, or fallen into the Sea, make too much haste to be deliver'd? when it is discharged; if a Man in Danger of Sickness, or a condemning Sentence of the Judge, be glad when the Fear of Death is over; how glad should you be to be safe from the great Danger of Damnation? And till you are sanctified by Grace, you are far from Safety.

S. 3. And if a Man's Sickness, Pain of Distraction, be a Calamity, the Cure of which brings Ease and Joy, how much more Ease and Joy may it bring, to be cured from all the grievous Maladies of reigning Sin? Sanctification will cure your Minds of Spiritual Blindness and Madness; that is, of damnable Ignorance, Unbelief and Error : It will cure your Affections of idolatrous, distracting, carnal Love; of the Itch of fleshly Defires or Lufts; of the Fever of revengeful Passions, and malignant Hatred to Goodness and good Men; and of felfvexing Envy and Malice against others; of the greedy Worm of Covetonfness, and the drunken Defire of ambitions and imperious Minds: It will cure your Wills of their fieldly Servitude and Bials, and of that mortal Backwardness to God and Holy Things, and that fluggift Dulness and Lothness to chose and do what you are convinced must be done: It will make an en the uld ger make good Things easy and pleasant to you; so that you will no more think you have need to beg Mirth from the Devil, or steal it from Sin, as if God, Grace, and Glory, had none for you: But it will be so easy to you to love and find Pleasure in the Bible and good Books, in good Company and good Discourse, in Spiritual Meditations and Thoughts, in Holy Sermons, Prayers and Church-Communion and Sacraments, even in Christ, in God, and the Fore-thoughts of Heaven; that you will be forry and assamid to think that ever you for sook such Joys for fleshly Pleasure, and defiled your Souls with filthy and forbidden Things.

S. 4. And certainly you cannot too foon attain the Delights of Faith, and Hope, and Love of Holy Knowledge and Communion with God and Saints: You cannot too foon have the great Blessing of Righteousness, Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghost, and live Night and Day in Peace of Conscience, in Assurance that all your Sins are pardon'd, and that you are the adopted Sons of God, and Heirs of Heaven, sealed by his Spirit, accepted in your Prayers, welcome to God thro Christ, and when you die shall be with him:

him: Can you make too great haste from the Folly and Filth of Sin, and the Danger of Hell, into so safe and good a State a this?

on thus to find at Age and Use of Reason that your Baptismal Blessings ceased no with your Infancy by your own Rejections but that you are now, by your own Consent, in the Bond of God's Covenant and have a Right to all the Blessings of it which the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood will confirm, as you had your Entrance by your Parents Consent and accepted Dedication: For the Covenant of Grace is our certain Charter for Grace and Glory.

S. 6. And is it not a Joy to you to be your Parents Joy; to find them love you not only as their Children, but as God's?

f. 7. And O what a Mercy will you find it when you come to Age and Business in the World! 1. That you come with clear Conscience; not clogg'd, terrified and shamed with the Sins of your Youth 2. And that you come not utterly unfurnish'd with the Knowledge, Righteous ness and Virtue, which you must make use of in every Condition all your Lives.

Quest. 7. Do you know the Difference between a Man and a Brute? Brutes have no Capacity to think of a God, and a Saviour, and a Life to come, and to know God's Law, and study Obedience, and fear Hell and Sin, nor Reason to rule their Appetites and Lufts, nor any Hope or Joy in foreseen Glory; but Man is made ca-pable of all this: And can you think God maketh fuch noble Faculties in vain? Or hould we live like Brutes that have none fuch ?

Quest, 8. Do you not certainly know that you must die? All the World cannot hinder it; you must die: And is it not near, as well as fure? How swift is Time? Oh! But you are sure that your Flesh must rot in dark Grave; you are sure that Death will quickly put an end to all that this Work can afford you: House and Land, and all that now deceive poor Worldlings, will be nothing to you; no more than if you has never seen them, save the terrible Reckon Quest. 10. Is it a wise and reasonable Expectation, that the Righteons God should give that Man Everlasting Glory, who will not leave his Whores, his Drunkennels, or the basest Vanity, for all his Love, and for all his Mercies, for the Sake of Christ, nor for the Hopes of all this Glory? Heaven is the greatest Reward of Holiness, and of the diligent and patient Seekers of it; Heaven is the greatest Gift of the great Love of God; and can you believe that he will give it to the Slaves of the Devil, and to contemning wisful Rebels? May not you next think that the Devils may be saved? Can he not be Merciful, and yet be Holy and Just? Is the King Unmerciful, if he make use of Goals and Gallows for Malefactors? It's Mercy to the Land to destroy such as would destroy others. The Bosom of Eternal Love is not a Place for any but the Holy: The heavenly Paradise is not like Mabomet's, a Place of Lust and sensual Delights You blaspheme the most Just and Holy God, if you make him seem indifferent to the Holy and the Unholy, to his faith ful Servants, and to the Despisers of his Grace.

that unfanctified Souls should be sanctified and saved in another World, is it not a Madness to cast everlasting Life upon so great Uncertainty or Improbability, when we have Life, and Time, and Helps, to make our Salvation sure? God hath called you to give all Diligence to make it sure, 2 Pet. 1. 10. He hath made infallible Promises of it to sanctified Believers.

He calleth you to examine and judge your felves, 2 Cor. 13. 5. And do you know the Difference between Certainty and Uncertainty in so great a Case? Oh, none can now sufficiently conceive what a Difference there is between a Soul that is going out of the Body with joyful Affu-rance that Christ will presently receive him, and a Soul that in the Guilt of Sin must say, I am going to an endless Life, and know not but it may be an endless Misery! I am here now, and know not but I may be presently with Devils that here deceived me. A just Fear of passing presently to Hell-fire is a dreadful Case, to be avoided above all earthly Sufferings, Luke 12. 4. and 14.33. much more when God's Threatnings to the Impenitent are most fure.

Have not you those secret Gripes of Conscience, when you think that for all these Things you must come to Judgment, which much abateth the Pleasure of your Sin? Had you spent that Time in seeking first the Kingdom of God, and its Righteonsness, and in honest obedient labouring in your Callings, you need not have look'd back on it with the Gripes of an accusing Conscience. If you see a true Believer for rowful, it is not for serving and obeying God, or being holy, and hating Sin; but for serving God no better, and hating Sin no more.

But when tempting Meat and Drink are before you, and the tempting Person hath secret Familiarity with you, and tempting or provoking Words are at your Ears; then alas, many have need of more Grace, Resolution, and Mortification, than they have.

If you knew well what Sin is, and what is the Consequence, you would be more watchful and resolved against Temptations than against Thieves or Fire, or the Places insected by the Plague.

VIII. Make it the chief Study of your Lives to understand what Man's everlasting Hope is, and to get a lively, well-settled Belief of it; and to bring your Souls to take it joyfully for your true Felicity and End; and thence daily to fetch the powerful Motives of your Duty and your Patience, and your contenting Comfort in Life, and at your Death.

The End is the Life of all the Means. If heavenly Blessedness to not the chief and that you live, hope, and labour for in the World, your whole Lives will be but carnal.

For the Means can be no better than the End. God, that is the Beginning, is our End; we are made and governed by him, and for him. Heavenly Glory is the Sight of his Glory, and the everlasting Perfection and Pleasure of joyful mutual Love.

But we are not the noblest Creatures, next to God, in Excellency and Desert; yea, we are Sinners, who have deserved to be cast from his Love. And therefore as in the Way we must come to him by a Saviour, so at the blessed End we must enjoy him by a Mediator. And to see God's Glory in Christ, and the heavenly ferusalem, the blessed Society of Saints and Angels, continually staming in Love, Joy and Praises to the most Holy God, this, this is the Felicity for which we labour, suffer, and hope.

If it be not well grounded first, and well exercifed upon God's Love, Promife, and Glory, from Day to Day, you will find Cause (sadly) to lament the Weakness of it. For this elfe you have great need of the help of fuch Books as open clearly the evident Proofs of the Christian Verity, which I have briefly done in the beginning of the 2d Part of my Life of Faith, and more largely in two other Books, viz. The Unneasonableness of Infidelity, and the Reafons of the Christian Religion. A firm Belief of the World to come is it that must make us ferious Christians, and overcome the Snares of worldly Vanity.

And your Faith being well settled, set your selves daily to use it, and live by it; dwell in the joyful Hopes of the heavenly Glory. What is a Man that liveth not in the Use of Reason? And you must know that you have as daily Use for your Faith as for your Reason. Without Reason you can neither safely eat or drink, nor converse with Man as a Man, but as Bediam; nor do any Busness that concerneth you: and therefore you must live by your Reason. And without Faith you cannot please please God, nor obtain Salvation, no, nor use your Reason for any thing higher than to serve your Appetites, and purvey for the Flesh; and therefore you must live by Faith, or live like Beasts, and worse than Beasts, and cannot otherwise live to God, nor live in the Hopes of Blessedness hereaster. O! consider that the difference between living chiefly upon and for an earthly or slessly Felicity, or a Heavenly, is the great Difference between the Holy and the Unholy, and the Foregoer of the Difference between those in Heaven and those in Hell.

And therefore out of him you can do nothing. All Duty that you offer to God must be by his Media tion, and fo must all Mercy which you receive from God. IV. And by this is it easy to know, what a (k) state of Sin and Ungodliness is: Even the want of all this Holineis, and the setting of carnal Self instead of GOD. V. By this, Experience it felf may tell you, that most Men (1) (yea all, till Grace renew them) are in this ungodly miserable State: (though only the Scripture tells us how this came to pell.) Though all are not Fornicators, nor Drunkards, nor Extortioners, nor Perfecutors, nor live not in the same way of finning; yet Selfiftness, and Pride, and Sensuality, and the Love of Worldly Things, Ignorance and Ungodliness, are plainly become the common Corruption of the Nature of Man, fo that their Hearts are turned to the World from God, and filled with Impiety, Filthiness, and Injustice; and their Reason is but a Servant to their Senses; and their (m) Mind, and Love, and Life is carnal; and this carnal Mind is Enmity to the Holiness of God, and cannot be subject to his Law. This Corruption is hereditary, and is become, as it were, a Nature to us, being the mortal Malady of all our Natures. And it is easy to know that fuch an unholy wicked Nature must needs be loathsome to God, and (n) unfit for the happy Enjoyment of his Love, either here, or in the Life to come: For what Communion hath Light with Darkness?

VI. Hence then it is easy to see, That Grace is needful to a Man's Salvation. So odious a Creature, such an unthankful Rebel, that is turned away from God

To love God, and be beloved by him, and to be delighted herein, in the fight of his Glory, is the Heaven and Happiness of Souls, and all this is contrary to an unholy State. Till Men have new and holy Hearts, they can neither fee God, nor love him, nor delight in him, nor take him for their chief Content; for the Flesh and World have their Delight and Love. The Soul alone is judged at Death, and Body and Soul at the Refurrection. This Gospel the Apostles preached to the World; and that it might be effectual to Mens Salvation, the (y) Holy Ghost was first given to inspire the Preachers of it, and enable them to fpeak in the various Languages, and infallibly to agree in one, and to work many great and open Miracles to prove their Word to those they preached to: And by this means they (2) planted the Church; which ordinary Ministers must increase, and teach and overfee to the End of the World, till all the Elect be gathered in. And the same (a) Holy Spirit hath undertaken it, as his Work, to accompany this Gospel, and by it to convert Mens Souls, illuminating and fanctifying themba and by a fecret (b) Regeneration to renew their Natures, and bring them to that Knowledge and Obedience, and Love of God, which is the primitive Holiness

All this you may learn from the Sacred Scriptures, which were (c) written by the Inspiration of the Holy Spirit, and sealed by multitudes of open (d) Miracles, and contain the very Image and Superscription of God, and have been received and preserved by the Church, as the certain Oracles of God, and blessed by him through all Generations, to the sanctifying of many Souls.

IX. When you understand all this, it is time for you to (e) look home, and understand now what state your Souls are in. That you were made capable of Holiness and Happiness, you know: that you and all Men are fallen from God, and Holiness, and Happiness, unto Self, and Sin and Misery, you know; that you are so far redeemed by Christ, you know, as to have a pardoning and saving Covenant tendered you, and Christ and Mercy offered to your choice. And if this be so, (as nothing is more fure) I require thee now, who readest these words, as thou regardest thy Salvation, as thou wouldst escape Hell-fire, and fland with Comfort before Christ and his Angels, at the last, that thou soberly consider whether Reason command thee not to try thy State, whether thou art thus (g) renewed by the Spirit of Christ or not: And to (b) call for help to those that can advise thee, and follow on the search till thou know thy Case. Thus Deadness, Sensuality, Worldliness and Hypocrify, do hinder Millions from Sanctification and Salvation.

XI. If ever thou wouldst be saved, oppress not Reason by Sensuality or Diversions: But sometimes (q) retire for sober Consideration, distracted and sleepy Reason is unuseful: God and Conscience have a great deal to say to thee; which in a croud of Company and Business thou art not sit to hear. Alas, Man, the Day is even at hand; a few days more, and thou art gone! And dareft thou live unready, and part with Heaven for fuch a World as this?

XIII. And then think soberly of the (u) Life to come, What it is for a Soul to appear before the living God, and be judged to endless Joy or Misery! If the Devil tempt thee to doubt of such a Life, remember that Nature, and Scripture, and the World's Consent, and his own

Is there any Felicity more desirable than Heaven? Or any Misery more terrible than Hell? Or any thing so regardable as that which is everlasting? Will a few days fleshly Pleasures pay for the loss of Heaven and thy Immortal Soul? Or will thy Sin and thy Prosperity be sweet at Death, and in the Day of Judgment? As thou art a Man, and as ever thou believest that there is a God, and a World to come, and as thou carest for thy Soul, whether it be faved or damned, I beseech thee, I charge thee, think of these things! think of them once a-day at least! think of them with the most sober serious Thoughts! Heaven is not a May-game, and Hell is not a Flea-biting. Make not a jest of Salvation or Damnation. I know thou livest in a distracted World, where thou mayst hear some laughing at such things as these, and scorning at a Holy Life, and fastning odious Reproaches on the Godly, and merrily drinking and playing, and prating away their Time, and then faying, that they will trust God with their Souls, and hope to be faved without fo much ado: But if all these Men do not change their Minds, and be not shortly down in the Mouth, and would not be glad to eat their Words, and and wished that they had lived a Holy Life, though it cost them Scorn and Suffering in the World, let me bear the fhame of a Deceiver for ever. But if God and thy Conscience bear witness against thy Sin, and tell thee that a holy Life is best, regard not the Gain-saying of a Bedlam World, which is drunk with the Delusions of the Flesh: But give up thy Soul and Life to God by Jesus Christ in a faithful Covenant. Delay no longer, Man, but resolve; Resolve immediately, resolve unchangeably; And God will be thine, and thou shalt be his for ever, Amen. Lord, have Mercy on this Sinner, and fo let it be resolved by thee in him.

II. The Parts and Practice of a Holy Life, for Personal and Family Instructions.

of Christ, by their Scandals and Infir. mities: Many do grieve their Teachers Heart, and lamentably disturb the Church of Christ, by their Ignorance, Errors, Self-conceitedness, Unruliness, Headiness, Contentiousness, Sidings and Divisions: Infomuch that the (b) Scandals and the Fends of Christians are the great Impediments of the Conversion of the Infidel and Heathen World, by the exposing Christianity to their Contempt and Scorn, as if it were but the Error of Men, as unholy and worldly, and proud as others, that can never agree among themselves: And many by their Passions and Selfishness are a Trouble to the Families and Neighbours where they live: And more by their Weakness and great Distempers, are Snares, Vexations and Burdens to themselves. Whereas Christianity in its true Constitution, is a Life of such Holy (c) Light and Love, such Purity and Peace, such Fruitfulness and Heavenlinefs, as, if it were accordingly shewed forth in the Lives of Christians, would command Admiration and Reverence from the World, and do more to their Conversion, than Swords or Words alone

When you think of Sin, and Infirmity, and Temptations, think also of his sufficient pardoning, justifying and victorious Grace. your Doubts and Fears, and Wants, go to him in the Spirit, and to the Father by him, and him alone. Take him as the Root of your Life and Mercies, and live as upon him and by his Life; and when you die, resign your Souls to him, that they may be with bim where he is, and see his Glory. To live on Christ and use him in every Want, and Address to God, is more than a general confused Believing in him.

III. So believe in the Holy Ghoft, as to (g) live and work by bim, as the Body doth by the Soul. You are not (b) baptized into his Name in vain: (but too few understand the Sense and Reason of it.) The Spirit is fent by Christ for two great Works. 1. To the Apostles and Prophets, to (i) inspire them infallibly to preach the Gospel, and confirm it by Miracles, and leave it on Record for following Ages, in the Holy Scriptures.

2. To all his (k) Members, to illuminate and fanctify them, to believe and obey his Sacred Doctrine; (besides his common Gift to many, to understand and preach it.) The Spirit having first indited the Gospel, doth by it first regenerate, and you may boldly trust him, and filial Love may be the Spring of Duty. Make use of the Son and Spirit to lead you to the Father; and of faith in Christ to kindle and keep alive the Love of God. God's Love is our Primitive Holiness, and especially called, with its Fruits, Our Santification; which Faith in Christ is but a means to. Let it be your principal End, in studying Christ, to see the Goodness. Love, and Amiableness of God in him: A condemning God is not fo eafily loved, as a gracious reconciled God. You have so much of the Spirit, as you have Love to God. This is the proper Gift of the Spirit to all the adopted Sons of God, tocause them with filial Affection and Dependence, to cry, Abba, Father, Know not, defire not, love not any Creature, but purely as subordinate to God. With. out him, let it be nothing to you but asthe Glass without the Face, or scattered Letters without the Sense; or as the Corps without the Soul. Fear him much, but love him more! Let (r) Love be the Soul and End of every other Duty. It is the End and Reason of all the rest: Put it hath no End or Reason, but its Object. Think of no other Heaven, and End and Happiness of Man, but Love the final Act, and God the final Object: Place not your Religion in any thing but the Love of God, with its Means and Fruits. Own no Grief, Delire, or Joy, but a mourning, a feeking, and a rejoicing Love.

V. Live in the Belief and Hopes of Heaven, and (s) feek it as your Part and End; and daily delight your Souls in the fore-thoughts of the endless Sight and Love of God. As God is feen on Earth but as in a Glass, so is he proportionably enjoyed. But when mourning seeking Love hath done, and Sin and Enemies are overcome, and we behold the Glory of God in Heaven, the Delights of Love will then be perfect.

You may defire more oh Earth than you may hope for. Look not for a Kingdom of this World, nor for Mount Zion in the Wilderness: Christ reigneth on Earth, as Mofes in the Camp, to guide us to the Land of the Promise; our perfect Blessedness will be, when the Kingdom is delivered up to the Father, and God is All in All. A Doubt, or a strange heartless Thought of Heaven, is Water cast on the sacred Fire, to quench your Holiness and your Joy. Can you travel one whole Day to fuch an End, and never think on the Place that you are going to? XI. Let (b) Time be exceeding precious in your Eyes, and carefully and diligently redeem it. What hafte doth it make? And how quickly will it be gone? And then how highly will it be valued; when a Minute of it can never be recalled? O what important business have we for every Moment of our Time, if we should live a thousand Years! Take not that Man to be well in his Wits, or to know his God, his End, his Work, or his Danger, who hath Time to spare. Redeem it, not only from needless Sports, and Plays, and Idleness, and Curiosity, and Compliment, and Excess of Sleep, and Chat, and Worldliness; but also from Entanglements of lesler Good, which would hinder you from greater. Spend time, as Men that are ready to pass into mother World, where every Minute must be accounted for; and it must go with us for ever as we lived here. Let not Health deceive you into the expectation of living long, and so into a senses Negligence. See your Glass running, and keep a reckoning of the Expence of Time: and spend it just as you would review it when it is gone.

This is the true Constitution of Christianity: This is true Godliness; and this is to be Religious indeed: And all this is no more than to be seriously such, as all among us in general Words profess to be. This is the Religion which must difference you from Hypocrites; which must settle you in Peace, and make you an Honour to your Profession, and a Blessing to those that dwell about you. Happy is the Land, the Church, the Family, which doth consist of such as these! These are not they that either persecute or divide the Church, or that make their Religion a Servant to their Policy, to their ambitious Deligns, or fleshly Lufts; nor that make it the Bellows of Sedition of Rebellion, or of an envious hurtful Zeal or a Snare for the Innocent, or a Piffol to shoot at the upright in Heart : These are not they that have been the Shame of their Profession, the hardning of ungodly Men and lofidels, and that have canfed the Ene. mies of the Lord to blaspheme. If any Man will make a Religion of or for his Lufts, of Papal Tyranny, or Pharifaical Formality. or of his private Opinions, or of proud Cenforiousness, and Contempt of others, end of Faction, and unwarrantable Separations and Divisions, and of standing at a more observable distance from common Profesfors of Christianity, than God would have them; or yet of pulling up the Hedge of Discipline, and laying Christ's Vineyard common to the Wilderness; the Storm is coming, when this Religion founded on the Sand will fall, and great will be the fall thereof. When the Religion which consisteth in Faith and Love to God and Man, in mortifying the Flesh, and crucifying the World, in Self-denial, Humility and Patience, in fincere

Quest. 1. W Hat is the Christian Rest-

Anwf. The Christian Religion is the Baptismal Covenant made and kept; wherein God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, doth give himself to be our reconciled God and Father, our Saviour and Sanctisser; and we believingly give up our selves accordingly to him, renouncing the Flesh, the World, and the Devil. Which Covenant is to be oft renewed, specially in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Quest. 2. What believe you of the Creation, and the Nature of Man, and the Law which was given to him?

Answ. God created all the World: and made MAN in his own Image, an imbodied Spirit of Life, Understanding and Will, with holy Liveliness, Wisdom and Love; to know, and love, and serve his Maker, here and for ever: And gave him the inferiour Creatures for his use; but forbad him to eat of the Tree of Knowledge, upon pain of Death.

Quest. 3. What believe you of Man's Fall into Sin and Misery ?

Answ. Man being tempted by Satan, did by wilful finning fall from his Holiness, his Innocency, and his Happiness, under the Justice of God, the Condemnation of his Law, and the Slavery of the Flesh, the World, and the Devil; whence sinful, guilty, and miserable Natures are propagated to all Mankind: And no mere Creature is able to deliver us.

Quest. 4. What believe you of Man's Redemption by Jesus Christ?

And then ascended into Heaven, where he is God and Man, the glorified Head over all things to his Church, and our prevailing Intercessor with God the Father.

Quest. 5. What is the New Testament, or

Answ. God, through Jesus Christ, doth freely give to all Mankind Himself, to be their reconciled God and Father, his Son to be their Saviour, and his Holy Spirit to be their Sanctifier, if they will believe and accept the Gift, and will give up themselves to him accordingly; Repenting of their Sins, and consenting to forsake Regenerated by the Holy Spirit, have eave to call thee their Reconciled Fathers. For by thy Covenant of Grace thou hast given them thy Son to be their Head, their Teacher, and their Saviour; and in him thou hast pardoned, adopted, and anchisted them; sealing and preparing them by thy Holy Spirit, for the Cœlestial Kingdom, and beginning in them that holy Life, and Light, and Love which hall be perfected with thee in Everlasting Glory. O with what wondrous Love hast thou loved us, that of Rebels we should be made the Sons of God! Thou hast advanced us to this Dignity, that we might be devoted wholly to Thee as Thine Own, and might delightfully obey Thee, and entirely love Thee, with all our Heart; and so might glorify Thee here and for ever.

O cause both us, and all thy Churches, and all the World to hallow thy great and holy Name! And to live to thee as our Ultimate End; that thy shining Image on Holy Souls may glorify thy Divine Perfection.

A Short Prayer for Families.

MOST Glorious Ever-living God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, Infinite in thy Power, Wisdom and Goodness; Thou art the Creator of all the World, the Redeemer of lost Mankind, and the Sanctifier of thine Elect. Thou hast made us living reasonable Souls, placed a while on Earth in Flesh, to feek, and know, and love, and ferve thee, which we should have done with all our Soul and Might; for we and all things are thy own, and thou art more to us than all the World. This fould have been the greatest Business, Care and Pleasure of our Lives: We were bound to it by the Law, and invited by thy Love and Mercy, and the Promise of a Reward in Heaven: And in our Baptism, we were devoted to this Christian Life of Faith and Holiness, by a Solemn Covenant and Vow. But with Grief and Shame

Shame we do confess, that we have been too unfaithful to that Covenant, and too much neglected the Lord our Father, our Saviour, and our Sanctifier, to whom we were devoted; and have too much ferved the Flesh and the World, and the Devil, which we renounced. We have added to our Original Sin, the Guilt of Unthankfulness for a Saviour, and relisting his Spirit and Grace that should have renewed, and governed, and faved us. We have spent much of our Lives in fiethly and worldly Vanity, and finfully neglected the greatest Work, of making a fure Preparation for Death and Judge ment, and our endless State. In a Cus-tom of sinning we have hardened our Hearts against thy Word and Warnings, and the Reproofs of thy Ministers, and of our Consciences, that have oft told us of our Sin and Danger, and called us to repent.

Let us never forget that this Life is short, and that the Life to come is endless; That our Souls are precious, and our Bodies vile, and must shortly turn to Rottenness and Dust; That Sin is odions, and Temptations dangerous, and Judgment dreadful to unprepared guilty Souls; and that without a Saviour and his Grace and Spirit, there is no Salvation. This should have been the greatest Care, and Buliness and Pleasure of all my Life: I was bound to it by thy Law; I was invited by thy Mercy. And in my Baptism I was devoted to this holy Life, by a folemn Covenant and Vow. I have been too careless of my Immortal Soul, and of the great Work for which I was created and redeemed; I have spent much of my precious time in Vanity, in minding and pleasing this corruptible Flesh : And I have hardned my Heart against those instructions, by which thy Spirit, and my Teachers, and my own Conscience, did call upon me to repent and turn to thee.

But we are ashamed to think how foolifhly and finfully we have forgotten and neglected our God and our Souls, and our Hopes of bleffed Immortality, and have overmuch minded the things of this visible transitory World, and the Prosperity and Pleasure of this corruptible Flesh, which we know must turn to rottenness and dust. Thou gavest us a Law which was just and good, to guide us in the only way to Life; and when by Sin we had undone our re-ves, thou gavest us a Saviour, even thy eternal Word made Man, who by his holy Life and bitter Sufferings reconciled us to thee, and both purchased Salvation for us, and revealed it to us, better than an Angel from Heaven could have done, if thou hadft fent him to us Sinners on fuch a Message. But alas, how light have we fet by our Redeemer, and by all that Love which thou hast manifested by him; and how little have we studied and understood, and less obeyed that Covenant of Grace, which thou hast made by him to loft Mankind!

But O God, be merciful to us vile and miserable Sinners! Forgive the Sins of our natural Pravity, and the Follies of our Youth, and all the Ignorance, Negligence, ligence, Omissions and Commissions of our Lives: And give us true Repentance for them, or else we know that thou wilt not forgive them. Our Life is but as a Shadow that passeth away, and it is but as a Moment till we must leave this World, and appear before thee to give up our Account, and to speed for ever as here we have prepared. Should we die before thou hast turned our Hearts from this finful Flesh and World to thee, by true Faith and Repentance, we shall be lost for evermore. O woe to us that ever we were born, if thou forgive not our Sins, and make us not holy before this short and uncertain Life be at an end: Had we all the Riches and Pleasures of this World. they would shortly leave us in the greater Sorrows. We know that all our Life is but the time which thy Mercy allotteth us to prepare for Death; therefore we should not put off our Repentance and Preparation to a fick Bed : but now Lord, as if it were our last and dying words, we earnestly beg thy pardoning and fanctifying Grace, through the Merits and Intercession of our Redeemer. Hadft thou been unwilling to thew Mercy, thou wouldst not have ranfomed us by so precious a Price, and still intreat us to be reconciled to thee: We have no cause to distrust thy Truth or Goodness; but we are afraid lest Unbelief, and Pride, and Hypocrify, and a worldly fleshly Mind, should be our Ruin. Lmighty and everlasting God, we render thee most humble and hearty Thanks, for that thou hast vouchsaf'd of thy great Mercy and Goodness to preferve us this Day: and we befeech thee also to preserve and keep us this Night in like manner from all Danger, as well of Body as of Soul; but especially so to enlighten the Eyes of the latter, that we never fleep in Sin: to the end that we, being by thee graciously preserved, may (if it be thy good Pleasure) rise again in Health to praise thy Majesty, and joyfully ferve Thee in Thanksgiving, with chaste Bodies and clean Hearts. Raife our dead Spirits from this heavy Earth, to dwell with Thee in the Land of the Living: That as we here admire thy bounteous Power, and daily fing the Wonders of thy Grace; we may hereafter adore thy bleffed felf, and fing eternally the Wonders of thy Glory. B E thou eternally ador'd, O God of our Salvation; and may thy Praises be fung by thy Servants for ever.

When our first Parents had disobey'd thy Precepts; to the Ruin of themselves and their whole Posterity :

Thy Mercy immediately provided a Remedy; and graciously promised a powerful Redeemer, who should suffer as Man, and satisfy as God.

A meritorious Redeemer, that should conquer Sin, and Death, and crush in pieces the Scrpent's Head.

A Redeemer that should fully repair the Breaches of Mankind; and die as a piacular Oblation, to procure Atonement for our Sins.

View of those excellent Truths that concern our Peace, and his All-sufficient Metits, for the Satisfaction of our Sins; and supporting our Nature with a stronger Grace, to bear us safely on through all Encounters, till we arrive at the Land of Rest, and be received for ever into that glorious Kingdom.

O blessed Jesus! our Strength, and our Guide; who knowest, and pitiest our

Who in thy tender Care hast contrived such Means, that nothing can undo us but our own Perverseness:

How easy hast thou made the Way to Heaven? How light the Burden thou layest upon thy Followers? 'Tis but to lave thee our greatest Benefactor; and we perfectly fulfil every Branch of thy Law.

'Tis but desiring to see thee, our supreme Beatitude; and we are sure to possess an Eternity of Joy.

Bleffed, O my God, be the Wisdom of thy Providence; which alone knows the Way to draw Good out of Evil.

Which not only restores us to our first Degree, but makes even our Fall rebound us to a greater Height.

Lord, as thy Goodness turns all things to the advantage of thy Elect; O may thy Elect praise thy Goodness in all Things!

Admirable, O Lord, wert thou in thy merciful Promise; but infinitely more in thy wonderful Performance.

I OR D, we befeech thee, for ske us not in the vanishing of our Days; but still continue thy Gracious and Fatherly Protection upon us: Be thou our Light and Defence, our Guide and Guard, through this Valley of Misery and Tears, and the Shadow of Death, to thine eternal Kingdom. And give us the Comfort, and Communion of thy Holy Spirit, that our Eyes may see thy Salvation, and we thy Servants may depart in thy Peace, for the Merits and Satisfaction of thy dear Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

God, the eternal Source and Necessity of Being, on whose free over-slowing that of the whole Creation every moment depends! Strike, we beseech thee, our Hearts with a continual Dread and Reverence of thy absolute Dominion, which should it but never so little suspend thy Bounty, we should instantly vanish into nothing; and grant that as we know thou preservest this World, we may grow daily riper for the other, and by thy Grace may so husband our Time here, as in the next Life to possess Eternal Bliss, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who liveth, &c.

God, whose Eternal Wisdom, the Word made Flesh, and dwelling amongst us, not only told the World with his own Sacred Mouth, the unthought-on Steps which lead directly to Heaven, but trod them out plain with his own facred Feet, and ordained others after him through all Generations, to guide ours steddily in them! Let not, we humbly befeech thee, so much Love and Care be loft on us; but vouchfafe us thy continual necessary Grace, not only to learn by Rote, and profess with our Lips, this precious way, kept still open to our Eyes: but make it our whole Life to walk diligently in it, even to Death, and beyond, through our Lord Jesus Christ thy Son, who with thee, and the Holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth ever one God, World without End. Amen.

The Nicene Creed.

Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of Heaven and Earth, and of all Things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all Worlds, God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one Substance with the Father, by whom all Things were made: Who for us Men, and for our Salvation came down from Heaven, and was Incarnate, by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made Man, and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, and the third Day he role again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into Heaven, and fitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with Glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose Kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Ghost, the Lord and Giver of Life, who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, who with the her and the Son together is woral and glorified, who spake by the rophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the Remission of Sins.
And I look for the Resurrection of the Dead, and the Life of the World to come.

Amen.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One undivided Three,
All highest Praise, all humblest Thanks,
Now, and for ever be.
